

Suggestions provided by the expert at Fujian Fisheries Research Institute

26th June 2023, Fujian

Provide support to provincial and local administrations in the development of implementing rules for the Fisheries Law, which could help better implement the management measures

Carry out legal literacy, science popularization and awareness raising work to enhance fisher's understanding of the laws and regulations

Conduct simulation research of the socio-economic benefits of different management scenarios, and conduct study on the socio-economic background of the crab fisheries

Research on crab biology and life history

